

Proclamation

City of St. Joseph, Missouri

RSVP VOLUNTEER DAY

WHEREAS, seniors continually renew their commitment to their community and their neighbors; and

WHEREAS, the City is extremely grateful, personally and collectively, for the contributions seniors generously give, to our lives and community; and

WHEREAS, today the City recognizes the outstanding contributions of 387 volunteers who participate in RSVP programs in Buchanan, Clinton and DeKalb Counties; and

WHEREAS, RSVP, the Retired and Senior Volunteer Program of Buchanan County, is sponsored by Inter-Serv and begins its 38th year of service to this Community; and

WHEREAS, 31 public, non-profit, private organizations and agencies participate at RSVP volunteer workstations; and

WHEREAS, in 2009, Inter-Serv's 334 RSVP volunteers donated 40,958 hours of volunteer services throughout this Community.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Bill Falkner, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of St. Joseph, do hereby proclaim this day, Wednesday, May 5, 2010 as RSVP Volunteer Day in St. Joseph, Missouri.

FURTHERMORE, I join with the citizens of St. Joseph, Missouri in celebration of our RSVP volunteers and in appreciation for the valuable services they provide to our Community

ISSUED: This 5th day of May, 2010

Bill Falkner

Mayor

