

Proclamation

City of St. Joseph, Missouri

VETERANS DAY

WHEREAS, Veteran's Day is a day for all Americans to recognize those who sacrifice for our liberty and for the security of our Nation; and

WHEREAS, we respect our Veterans for their courageous and faithful service; and

WHEREAS, America's veterans have made our country and the world more secure; and

WHEREAS, we pause in appreciation for those who have distinguished themselves either by serving in the Armed Forces or supporting loved ones in military service. We will always be grateful for their sacrifices so Americans and others could live in freedom.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Ken Shearin, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of St. Joseph, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, November 11, 2009 as Veterans Day in St. Joseph, Missouri.

FURTHERMORE, I join with all citizens to honor those who have and will continue to secure, defend and maintain our Nation's freedom and to recognize their valor and sacrifices through ceremony and prayer.

ISSUED: This 10th day of November, 2009

Ken Shearin

Mayor
